

David Bray Memorial Race

Approximately 8 miles, 1,450 feet. Years active 2005 to 2009.

Organised by Dave Willis in memory of David Bray, a scout leader at the Moravian Unit in Droylsden, the race was first held in 2005, and was won time and again by Andi Jones of Salford Harriers. His 2007 time of 49:17 remains the course record. Andi didn't participate in the final running of the race in 2009, where it was won instead by Glossopdales Mark Ollerenshaw in 54:44. The Womens record was set by Christine Howard of Matlock AC in 2008, with a time of 1:04:09.

Anyone looking for a nice run out or a social jaunt, this is an ideal route. For anyone wishing to have a crack at racing it, I would suggest a recce first, especially the outbound section to the South of Lees Hill (from Higher Bank to Hall Farm). Its easy when you know it, but it's very easy to go wrong if you don't – in the 2009 race, the front 3 runners were disqualified! They took a significant shortcut - the higher path which heads Southwest from Middle Bank.

The route is essentially an out and back from the start of Arnfield Lane to Wild Bank trig point, with a clockwise loop around Lees Hill in the middle. Below is a concise map of the route, it's all on marked paths so I won't even try to give a text description!
